LIQUOR REBELLION SUBSIDES TODAY

MICHIGAN'S REBELLION AGAINST PROHIBITION SUBSIDES IN FACE OF ARMED FORCES

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 24.—The "liquor rebellion" in Iron county in the upper Michigan Peninsula today apparently had subsided in the face of the approach of Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition enforcement chief for the sixth central Western district and a picked force of 18 armed assistants, reports from there indicated. Major Dalrymple announced he would "clean up" the county, arrest the state, county and Iron River city officials who have interfered with his lieutenants in the seizure on February 19 of contraband wine or "give up my job."

The foreign born element composing most of the population of the section reported insubordinate to the enforcement of prohibition today was reported greatly excited over reports regarding the possible use of federal troops, and in a number of cases white flags made from pillar slips, sheets and towels flew from windows and house-tops.

Martin S. McDonough, state's attorney for Iron county who assumed the responsibility for the disarming of Major Dalrymple's assisting troops was ready, he said, to submit peacefully to any federal arrest. It was the action of Mr. McDonough, assisted by five county and Iron River peace officers in seizing the wine from Leo A. Grove and a party of state constables that led to the report of "rebellion."

Marquette, Mich. Feb. 24.—H. B. Hatch, United States commissioner today refused to issue federal warrants for the arrest of six Iron County officials, charged with conspiracy to obstruct the prohibition law. Commissioner Hatch declared he could not act without the approval of District Attorney Walker at Grand Rapids, Mich., Federal Judge Sessions, or Attorney General Palmer.

Major A. V. Dalrymple, who asked for the warrants, notified Hatch that unless telegraphic authority to issue the warrants was received from District Attorney Walker by 2 p. m., he would proceed to Iron County with a company of his own men and a squad of Michigan state police and make the arrest without warrants.

ALLIES WILL NOT DEAL WITH SOVIET

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Allies will decline to deal with Soviet Russia, "until they have arrived at the conviction that the Bolshevik horrors have come to an end," it was announced after a meeting of the supreme council today.

The decision of the supreme council precludes discussions between allied governments and the Moscow administration in the immediate future.

The council expressed pleasure that the international labor bureau had decided to send a delegation to Russia to study conditions, but stated that supervision of the delegation should, under the council of the league of nations, give the investigators greater authority.

ANNOUNCEMENT

After thoroughly considering the needs of general publicity for Ada and its trade section, and discussing it with the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, who at their meeting last evening went on record as unqualifiedly endorsing the publication of a 1920 Industrial Number for Ada and Pontotoc County and pledged their fullest co-operation toward its successful issue, the Ada Evening News will publish, in the near future, an issue that will be based on facts and figures as they now exist with elimination of exaggerations and embellishments.

It's purpose will be to more closely cement the efforts and energies of every concern and individual that goes to make up this section and to inform the outside world just what this section has to offer.

The services of Mr. G. W. Hamerstrom of Oklahoma City, who we consider one of the most competent men available for this class of work, has been engaged for the direction of this publication.

This is a move for a greater Ada and that should enlist the most serious consideration and earnest co-operation of every one who is interested in Ada's legitimate advancement.

American Legion Entertainment A Successful One

The dance given last night at the City Hall by the Norman Howard Post No. 71 of the American Legion to its members and friends, in honor of Washington's birthday, was another dance as only the American Legion know how to put one on, and was an occasion which will be long remembered by not only those who danced but by the visitors who looked on, as well.

The programmes for this occasion were something out of the ordinary, being originated by Sam Schienberg of the Model, and below is a copy.

1. The Model Clothiers—Sax Dance.
2. Drummond & Alderson's, Jazz B. V. D.
3. Stevens-Wilson's—G. D. Waltz.
4. Simpson's Surprise Store—Ladies' Choice.
5. Shaw's Department Store—Shimmies.
6. Palm Garden—Chocolate Two Step.
7. Mrs. Land's Lunch Room—Chill Waltz.
8. Gwin & Mays—Rexall Fox Trot.
9. Ebey & Sugg—Loan Dance.
10. Stanfield's Market—T-Bone Waltz.
11. First National Bank—Deposit Dance.
12. Merchants and Planters Bank—Check Moonlight.
13. Oklahoma State Bank—Jazz.
14. Bart Smith's—Kodak Trot.
15. Liberty Theatre—Tickle Show.
16. American Legion—Dance.

Special No. 1.
17. Moser's Department Store.

Special No. 2.
18. Ada Evening News.

Special No. 3.
19. Coffman, Bobbitt & Sparks—Hardware Tag.

After the opening dance, Lowery Harrell, Post Commander, stated that as there had been some criticism of the American Legion dance, he wished to state, in behalf of the American Legion, that all dances, such as "the Cheek-to-Cheek", and any that might not pass censorship, be eliminated, as the American Legion intended to give only dances such as would be above criticism. Smather's orchestra furnished the music and were very obliging in the rendering of encores.

Punch was served between the numbers to quench the thirst of the merry makers.

There were between 90 and 100 couples present. Members and friends from Francis, Sulphur, Stratford, Ardmore and a great many other towns and cities were present to enjoy this memorable occasion. And a striking feature of the evening was the beautiful evening gowns in evidence. They ranged in color from white, pink, American Beauty Rose, orange, blue and many other colors and hues to formal black.

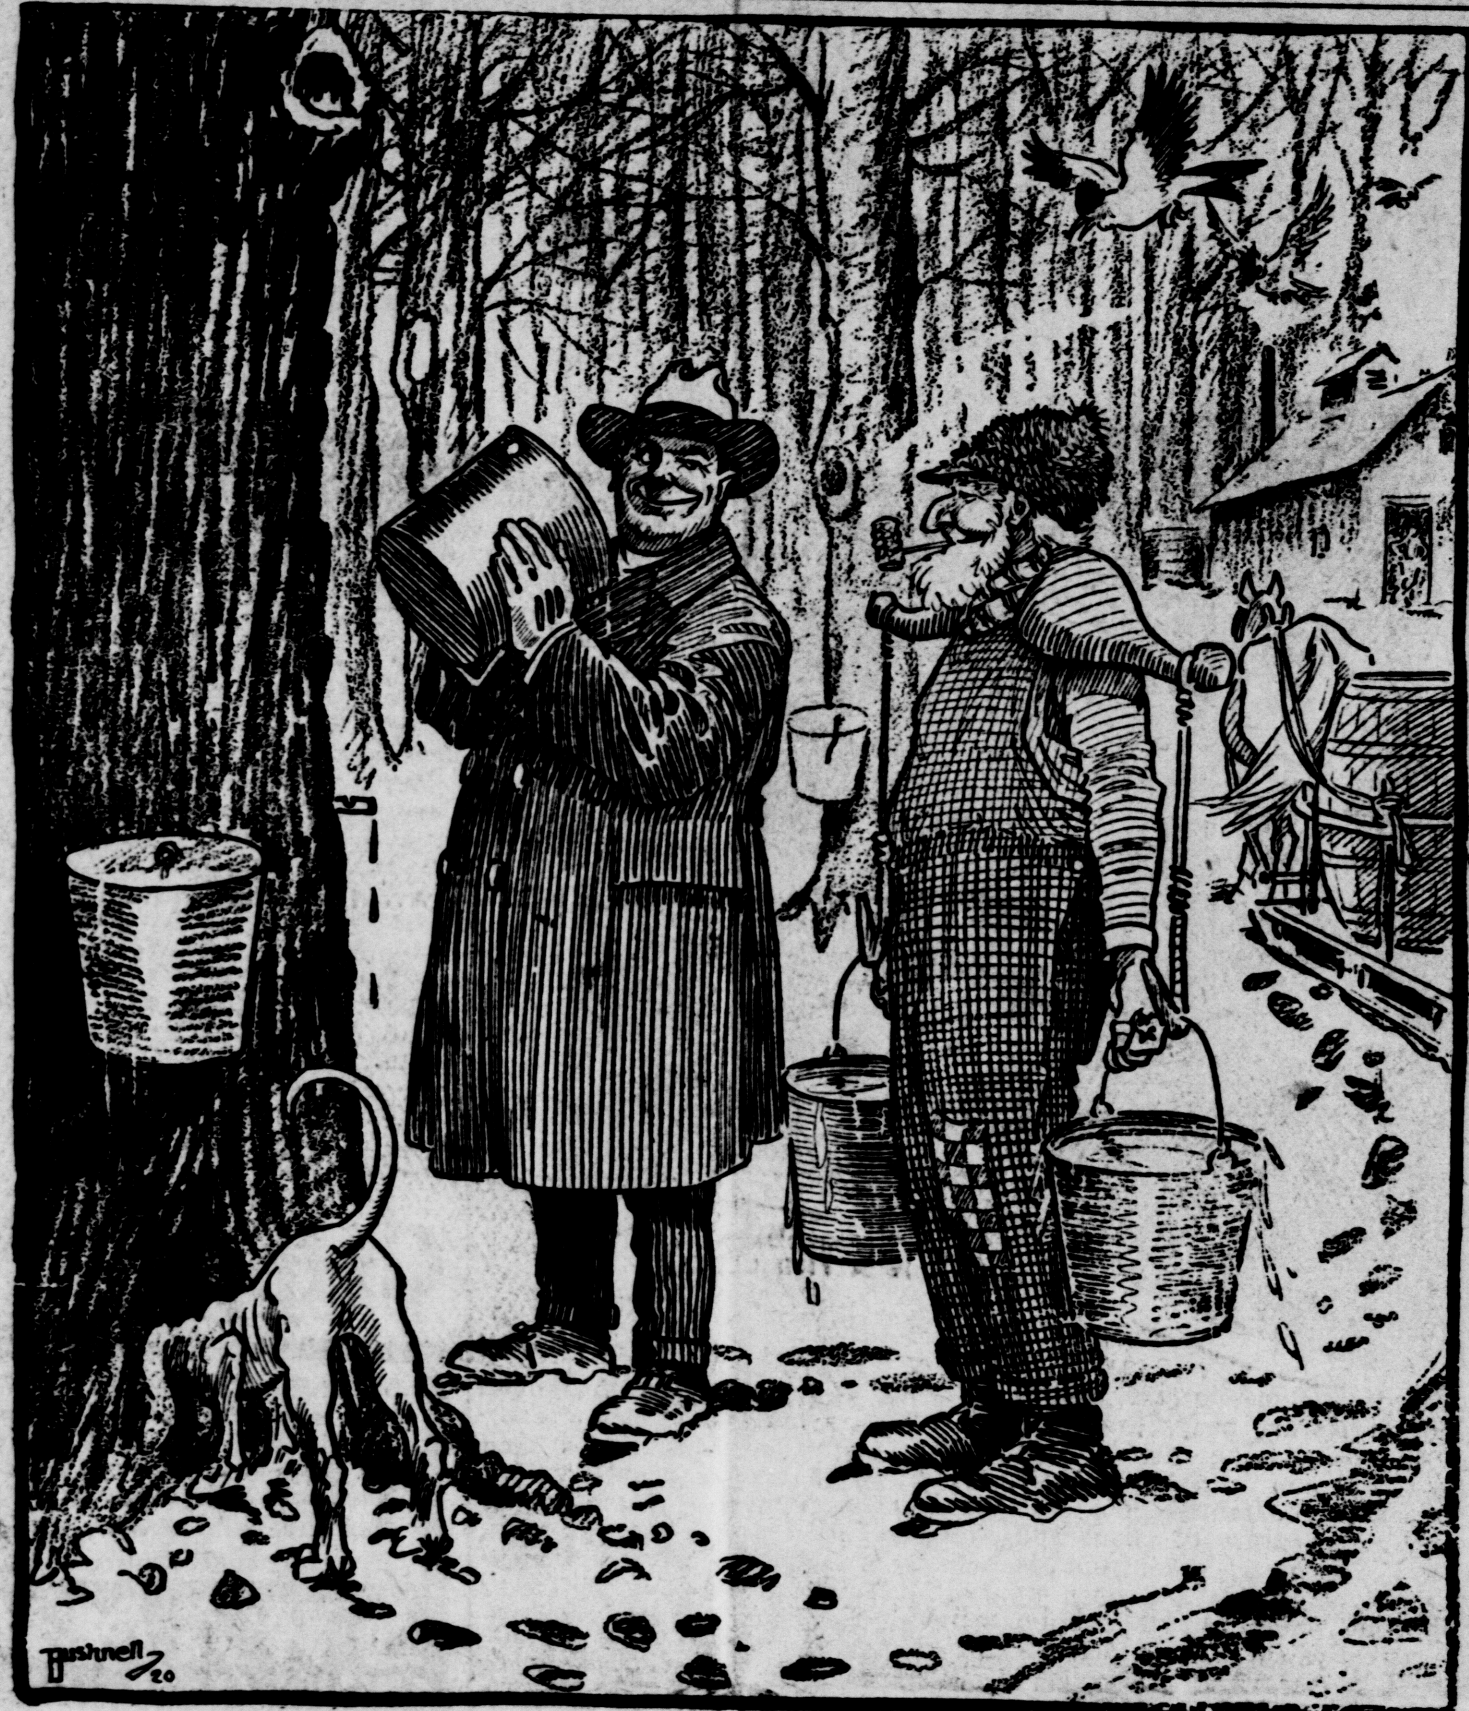

The American Legion displayed its spirit of generosity by allowing each encore to be a tag dance, thus giving the "stags" a part of each dance. This also served to enliven the dances and to increase the merriment of everyone.

The beautiful strains of "Home Sweet Home" followed the American Legion Dance and the guests departed wishing that the American Legion might entertain more often.

The receipts of the entertainment will be used to help furnish a permanent meeting place and club room for the American Legion.

Last but not least was the generosity of the Palm Garden in remaining open to serve lunches to the guests who were inclined to a little nourishment before departing to their respective homes.

FARMERS IN BIG MEET AT ATLANTA

By the Associated Press
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 24.—Extension of agricultural development and means for bringing about closer cooperation among the farmers of the South are the principal objects to be discussed in addresses in the 221st annual convention of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers which began here today. The convention will last three days.

The program for today provided for addresses of welcome to the delegates by Dr. Tait Butler of Memphis, Tenn., President of the Association; J. J. Brown, Commissioner of Agriculture of Georgia; and Mayor Candler, of Atlanta. This was followed on the program by an address by Dr. Bradford Knapp, Dean of the Agricultural College and Director of the Experiment Station of Fayetteville, Ark., outlining a policy to be followed for the extension of agricultural work in developing larger farms through local and state organization of the farmers.

At tomorrow morning's session, Dr. H. A. Morgan, President of the University of Tennessee, will speak on an agricultural policy for the guidance of producers in the Southern States. Reports on the coordination of investigational work conducted by the various experimental stations will be presented by the Agronomy Committee headed by C. A. Mooers, of Knoxville, Tenn.

The afternoon and evening session of tomorrow and Thursday will be taken up with sectional meetings including the following: Field Crops and Fertilizer Section, Animal Husbandry and Livestock Section, Extension Section, Horticultural Section and the Psychopathological Section. In these meetings detailed reports will be presented on a wide variety of subjects. Some of them are:

Reports of L. O. Watson, cotton expert, United States Department of Agriculture, on cooperating cotton breeding for wilt resistance; Professor George Roberts, University of Kentucky, on coordination of soil fertility work; Dr. H. B. Brown, Mississippi Agricultural College, increasing of corn production by selection and hybridization; R. Y. Winters, North Carolina Experimental Station, coordinating farm crops work.

Livestock questions coming under the Animal Husbandry and Livestock section, to be presented, will take

ALLIES WILL NOT RECOGNIZE SOVIETS

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Feb. 24.—Recognition of the Russian soviet government by the Allied nations is not contemplated by the Supreme allied council, but trade relations may be resumed and mutual engagements relative to aggression agreed upon as a result of yesterday's conference by the council, according to newspapers here.

Premier Millerand of France is understood to have voiced the fear that United Russia might be a serious menace to Western Europe, while Premier Lloyd George and Nitti have taken the view that Russia has been broken up and, therefore is not dangerous.

Poland is said to have been won over to the British view, but Roumania is reported to have asked guarantees from the allies relative to the risk involved in direct negotiations with the Bolsheviks. Representatives of the Baltic states are also said to have been promised support should there be further aggression on the part of the soviet government.

SINGLE TAX CLUBS PROPOSED NEW PARTY

By the Associated Press
CLEVELAND, Feb. 24.—Single tax clubs throughout the country propose this year to form a new national party according to James A. Robinson of Philadelphia, national organizer. The tax on land values only will be the platform frame work.

"Our candidate for president has not been selected but generally William Gorgas, the man who cleaned up the Panama Canal Zone, is a member of the party and we have reason to believe he would run," Mr. Robinson said.

New Minister to China

NOT TOO LATE TO GET BATTLES INTO DISCHARGE

If you went over the top and it didn't get in your service record book, it isn't too late yet to have it fixed.

Secretary Baker says it isn't. It will take a little effort on your part, but it can be done. Here's how:

If your outfit took part in an engagement and the morning reports do not show you absent from your organization you can get credit for being among those present by making a sworn statement that you were on the job and sending it to the Adjutant General with a certificate from an officer or the sworn statement of an enlisted man that he knows you were actually there.

If you do this the Secretary of War says that it shall be considered that you participated in the engagement, and a statement to that effect may be endorsed on your Discharge certificate when requested.

Supt. A. Floyd's Address at State Teachers Meeting

(The following address was delivered before the State Education Association at Oklahoma City last week by A. Floyd, superintendent of schools for Pontotoc County. The subject was, "Salary Problems as Related to the Supply and Demand of Teachers Adequately to Teach in the Public Schools.")

The subject: Salary problems as related to the supply and demand of teachers adequately prepared to teach in the rural schools, is a very broad one in its nature, and as to the amount the teachers are receiving and should receive and the comparison of their wages with others of different occupations have been thoroughly discussed in most every newspaper, magazine and periodical. Therefore, my discussion will deal primarily with the supply and demand of the adequately prepared teachers in our rural schools.

The supply of real teachers does not meet the demand. Yet, the supply that wishes to teach or want to teach in my county (Pontotoc) are adequately for the schools of the county. I have names on file now who want to teach, and I dare say that most of the counties have the same conditions that I have in my county. But when it comes to the demand of adequately prepared teachers, Pontotoc County is short, and I do not hesitate to say, without any fear of contradiction by the county superintendents of this state, who are present, that all of the counties are short in prepared rural teachers.

When I compare the records of the teachers of my county the year before the war and this year, as their grade of certificate and work I find we have made some progress. This is doubtless true in all counties. However, I do not feel that the improvements made are very far advanced in proportion to the increase of salaries. Nor do I believe that under the present system of turning out teachers that the conditions will be better very fast.

My fellow superintendents, I do not want to be misunderstood on my position on this point. I am in

NEGRO BURGLARS PLEAD GUILTY IN JUSTICE COURT

Zeke Scott and Tom Morris, colored, arrested and placed in jail several days ago on the charge of having burglarized Moser's Department Store, were to have been tried today. On appearance in Justice Brown's court, however, they changed their plea of not guilty to guilty and were remanded to jail to await the action of the district court.

WOMEN WHO CAN JOIN THE LEGION

FRANKLIN D'OLIER GIVES OUT INFORMATION AS TO ELIGIBILITY OF WOMEN TO AMERICAN LEGION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Feb. 24.—Franklin D'Olier, National Commander of the American Legion, today issued the following statement with regard to women eligible to membership in the American Legion:

"All women nurses who served in the nursing corps of the United States Army or Navy are eligible to membership in the American Legion. The American Red Cross before and during the war recruited thousands of trained nurses, most of whom later enlisted in the nursing corps of the Army or Navy, upon request made to the Red Cross nursing service. There were, however, many who went abroad under the direction and in the pay of the American Red Cross, who are not eligible to membership.

"All female members of the Navy and Marine Corps who were regularly enlisted upon the same terms as the men in those branches of the service are eligible to membership in the Legion.

"Civilians who were simply civilian attaches of the Military service and were not regularly enlisted personnel under commission or enlistment contracts, are not eligible to membership.

"The above applies to regular membership in the American Legion and should not be confused with the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, which was provided for in the constitution adopted at the Minneapolis Convention and which makes provision for membership therein as follows:

"Membership in the auxiliary shall be limited to the mothers, wives, daughters, and sisters of the members of the American Legion, and to the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of all men and women who were in the military or naval service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and died in line of duty or after honorable discharge and prior to November 11, 1920."

H. C. STEPHENS ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

BIG WINTER CARNIVAL AT BANFF, THE "SWITZERLAND OF CANADA"

The Winter Carnival at Banff this year will be bigger and better than ever. The "Switzerland of Canada" in the heart of the Canadian Rockies is well known to thousands of Americans in summer and more and more are enjoying the winter sports there each year. Banff lies in a vast amphitheatre, the walls of which are snow-capped mountains that rise a mile above the Bow Valley, and during the season of snow and ice the scenery is beautiful beyond description. Banff is the capital of Rocky Mountains Park, and the 500 soldiers it sent to war are back home full of "pep" and hungry for hockey. Three teams are on the ice and many fast games will be featured during the carnival.

Curling, art skating, figure skating, skating races, snowshoes, bobsledding, skiing, ski jumping, skijoring and ice boating on the Bow River will also be conspicuous features of the great carnival. A decided novelty will be the swimming races in the $150,000 government pool, the Cave and Basin, on the slope of Sulphur Mountain. Down in the mysterious depths of this mountain Mother Nature has a great teakettle in which she brews vast quantities of hot sulphur water which pours constantly into the pool at a temperature of about 100 degrees F. Although the pool is glassed-in at the sides and open at the top, the water retains enough heat to give the swimmer a perfectly comfortable plunge even though the mercury outside be below zero. Skijoring is a peculiar word and it may be that some people do not know what it means. When you go skijoring you don a pair of skis, harness yourself to a husky horse and let him race you over the ice or snow against some friendly competitor similarly equipped.

Nazimova, the brilliant Russian star, in her newest production, "Stronger Than Death," is announced by the management of the Liberty Theatre as the special attraction, beginning on Monday next for a run of two days. The presentation of this great artiste in a great photodrama is described as a peculiar treat for motion picture-goers. In "Stronger Than Death," Nazimova returns to powerful emotional roles after her clever impersonation of the chorus waif in her picturization of Maude Fulton's Morosco stage play, "The Brat." Nazimova is cast as Sigrid, a London music hall dancer, who finds love in the almost wildernesses of India, whither she goes for rest.

The story is an adaptation by Charles Bryant of I. A. R. Wylie's brilliant novel of Anglo-Indian life. It is said to be replete with thrills and compelling dramatic climaxes that grow out of an abortive mutiny and massacre of the "ish" planned by the fanatical Hindu natives.

Nazimova's biggest scene is her dance on the steps of the temple—a weird dance in the moonlight which strikes awe and terror to the hearts of the blacks, and causes them to delay their uprising until the British garrison comes to the rescue of the civilian community of Gaya. Her sacrifice is rewarded by the devotion of the hermit doctor, the strong male figure in the tense drama.

DOROTHY GISH IN "IN AGAIN" LATEST SENSATION

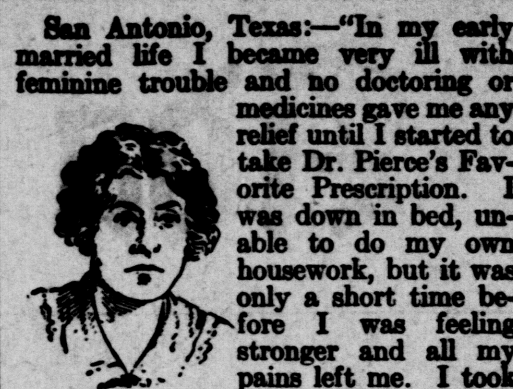

Dorothy Gish has been taken in hand by the authorities again. In one of her earlier releases, you remember, she was confined in a reformatory. "Turning the Tables," her new picture which is coming to the Liberty Theatre for today's showing, shows her as the lively inmate of a sanitarium. Only she hasn't been satisfied to pass life in a padded cell but has seized the cap and insignia of a nurse and is ministering to the mentally sick. A rollicking love story and lots of that unique Gish humor are said to be entwined in the plot, which gives disturbing Dorothy ample opportunity to exhibit her laugh-making wares.

Included in the cast are Raymond Cannon, George Fawcett, and Kate Toncray, and like the previous Gish releases the picture was directed by Elmer Clifton.

TEXAS WOMEN

San Antonio, Texas:—"In my early married life I became very ill with feminine trouble and no doctoring or medicines gave me any relief until I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was down in bed, unable to do my own housework, but it was only a short time before I was feeling stronger and all my pains left me. I took about six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and can say positively that it cured me of all feminine trouble for I have been in perfect health ever since. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all women suffering with inward trouble."—Mrs. ANN F. EPPS, 224 Rogers St.

Houston, Texas:—"For more than thirty years I have always spoken a good word for Dr. Pierce's Medicines. The 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets' were my 'standby.' 'Favorite Prescription' was the medicine I would take for nervousness, weakness and run-down conditions and the 'Pellets' for constipation and sluggish liver and these medicines have never failed to give me just the help and renewed health that I needed. I still take the 'Pellets' when I require a mild laxative, and consider them the very best medicine of that kind I have ever taken."—Mrs. M. PARISH, 911 Dowling St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret remedy for all the ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Contains no alcohol or narcotics.

Sold by druggists in liquid or tablets. If your druggist does not keep it, send 60c for tablets, or you can send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package.

FLIERS OF EIGHTEEN NATIONS TO RACE AROUND ATLANTIC FOR $100,000

Arrows indicate route to be followed in race.

Plans were announced recently for the aerial circuit of the Atlantic ocean under the auspices of the Aero Club of America. It is proposed that the aviators start from New York or Atlantic City, flying southward. They will go by way of Cuba, Haiti, Porto Rico, across the Caribbean Sea to Caracas, then along the coast to Pernambuco, across the Atlantic to Dakar, on the west coast of Africa, then northward along the coast of Africa, touching magador and Casa Blanca. The flight will lead across Spain or Portugal to Biarritz, then along the French coast and across the channel to London. The return flight will be a non-stop trip across the North Atlantic. It is said that fliers from eighteen countries have consented to participate in the flight, which is planned for next summer, and prizes aggregating $100,000 will be given.

VOTERS TO BLAME FOR PORK BARREL

BAD POLITICS DUE TO BAD VOTING SAYS HEAD OF LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS IN CHICAGO SPEECH

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Voters as well as legislators are to blame for pork barrel politics, Maud Wood Park, Boston, national head of the League of Women Voters told a session of the political education school for women here today.

"Until voters interest themselves in what is being done in Washington it is futile and unfair to expect members of Congress to heed needed changes," she said. "The sad part is that in many cases almost the only requests that a senator or congressman has from his constituents are for personal or local benefits. It is hard for him to realize that the strenuous efforts of lobbyists do not represent the wishes of all his constituents. Final responsibility with this state of affairs lies with the voters and they should realize it."

Mrs. Park then outlined the way in which the members of the Congress are elected, the differences in organization between Senate and House, the duties of the floor leaders, the whips, and the chief committees, and the steps that have to be taken before a measure can become law. She gave brief sketches of leading members of the two branches of the Congress and described typical scenes in illustration of the procedure of House and Senate.

Methods of procedure which ought to be changed were grouped as: (1) those wasteful of time, (2) those wasteful of money, (3) those wasteful of public interest, i. e. serving personal or local ends rather than national needs.

Among the practices wasteful of time, Mrs. Park cited the method of roll call in the House and the practically unlimited debate in the Senate. Among those wasteful of money she included the careless use of supplies, the abuse of the franking system, and, most important of all, the haphazard system of making appropriations and auditing accounts.

"On the House side," she said, "a thorough-going program of reform was outlined last year by a Massachusetts member, Hon. Alvan T. Fuller. It included (1) a budget system, (2) the elimination of useless committees, (3) the selection of each committee of its own chairman; (4) putting of all clerks on public payroll (5) doing away with spoils and perquisites (6) restriction of franking (7) complete publicity (8) Electrical voting (9) automatic reporting of all committee business (10) confining business of Congress

SHE WORE NO SHOES FOR TWO LONG YEARS

LOS ANGELES WOMAN LIVED IN BED AND PILLOWED CHAIR UNTIL SHE STARTED ON TANLAC

"I had to be cared for just like a baby before I began taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Alice Murphy, of 1501 Pennsylvania Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

"Two years ago I had a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism," she continued, "and no one knows the pain and torture I have suffered since. My hands swelled until I could hardly work my fingers and I haven't been able to put on a pair of shoes because my feet were swollen so. I had sharp pains through my back so bad that at times I simply could not keep from screaming. Sometimes I got so dizzy everything seemed to spin around and then I would have sharp pains and a chilly feeling afterwards. I was so helpless that I lived propped up with pillows in a chair or in bed all the time and had to be helped from one place to another."

"I tried every medicine or treatment we could hear of, but it was money thrown away and I got so blue I did not care to live. Then my husband read in the papers about Tanlac and by the time I had taken it four or five days I saw it was helping me. Now, after taking several bottles, I can't praise Tanlac enough. My nerves are so much better I sleep like a child all night long. I am already doing my housework again and it is the first time in two years I have been able to get around at all and wear my shoes."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Co., in Stonewall by L. P. Carpenter, in Francis by Francis Drug Co., and in Roff by Dowdy's Pharmacy. adv

HISTORY OF NUMBER 40

Forty years ago an old doctor was putting up a medicine for diseases of the glandular system, in blood troubles, eczema, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, chronic rheumatism, catarrh, in sores, ulcers, pimples, skin eruptions, mercurial and lead poisoning. Under its use bodily eruptions and scrofulous swellings that have withstood all other treatment disappear as if by magic." To commemorate my fortieth year as a druggist I named this medicine "Number 40 for the blood." J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind. Sold by Gwin & Mays Drug Store. Adv.

Constipation Causes Serious Ills

If you are its victim, try strengthening your digestive and eliminative organs with Nature's Remedy—it's better than laxatives.

NR Today—Keeps the Doctor Away

One of the world's greatest scientists says that more than 80% of all human ills can be traced directly or indirectly to constipation. How many sufferers realize this?

Most of them continually dose themselves with so-called laxative pills, calomel, oil, purges and cathartics and force bowel action. To do that is a mistake. It weakens the bowels and liver and makes constant dosing necessary.

Why don't you begin right today to overcome your constipation and get your system in such shape that constant dosing will be unnecessary? You can do so if you get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one each night for a week or so.

NR Tablets do much more than merely cause pleasant, easy bowel action. This medicine acts upon the digestive as well as eliminative organs—promotes good digestion, causes the body to get the nourishment from all the food you eat, gives you a good hearty appetite, strengthens the liver, overcomes biliousness, regulates kidney and bowel action and gives the whole body a thorough cleaning out.

And NR does this without a sign of griping, pain or unpleasantness. It works gently, but promptly and thoroughly. In a few days you notice the real result. WHEN MAJORITIES ARE HELPLESS

Do the people really rule in America? Do the people really get what they want in the way of government? Is American government responsive to the desires of the people?

If there is one thing on which the American people are agreed—if there is one thing they almost unanimously demand—it is the immediate return of the government to a pre-war basis. The public demands a reduction in the expenditures of government. It demands a return to national economy. It demands the elimination of departmental waste. It demands the decentralization of federal power. It demands a reduction in the senseless number of departmental employees. It demands a reduction in war taxation. It demands the demobilization of that vast army of lounge lizards that cumber the earth about Washington.

But is the public demand heard or heeded by those in authority? The public knows that there is not an official in Washington doing a single thing to carry out the public will. There is not an official from the president down to the janitor who is trying to inaugurate a policy of retrenchment in response to the nation-wide demand. A Democratic army in the departments is holding like grim death to the payroll and asking more money and still more money as the months roll by. A Republican congress is doing absolutely nothing to reduce the burdens borne by the people of the nation.

No department ever did in the history of this republic willingly prune its expenses or voluntarily reduce the number of its employees. The Republican congress understands this full well. But the congress also understands that public resentment will express itself in the next election and that the party in power will be chastised by that resentment. Willing to make political capital out of the unnecessary burdens borne by the public, congress waits complacently until after the next election to institute a policy of reform.

Thus between the leeches of the departments and the politicians of congress the people are between the devil and the salty sea. Nothing but a revolution can jar the plunderbund loose from the payroll. Nothing but an election past can set the ward heelers to work. The people know what they want. The government knows what the people want. But from every department head and clerk, from every congressman asleep at his post, there comes the painful reiteration of the pirate's slogan "The public be damned."

NO MORE OF THIS

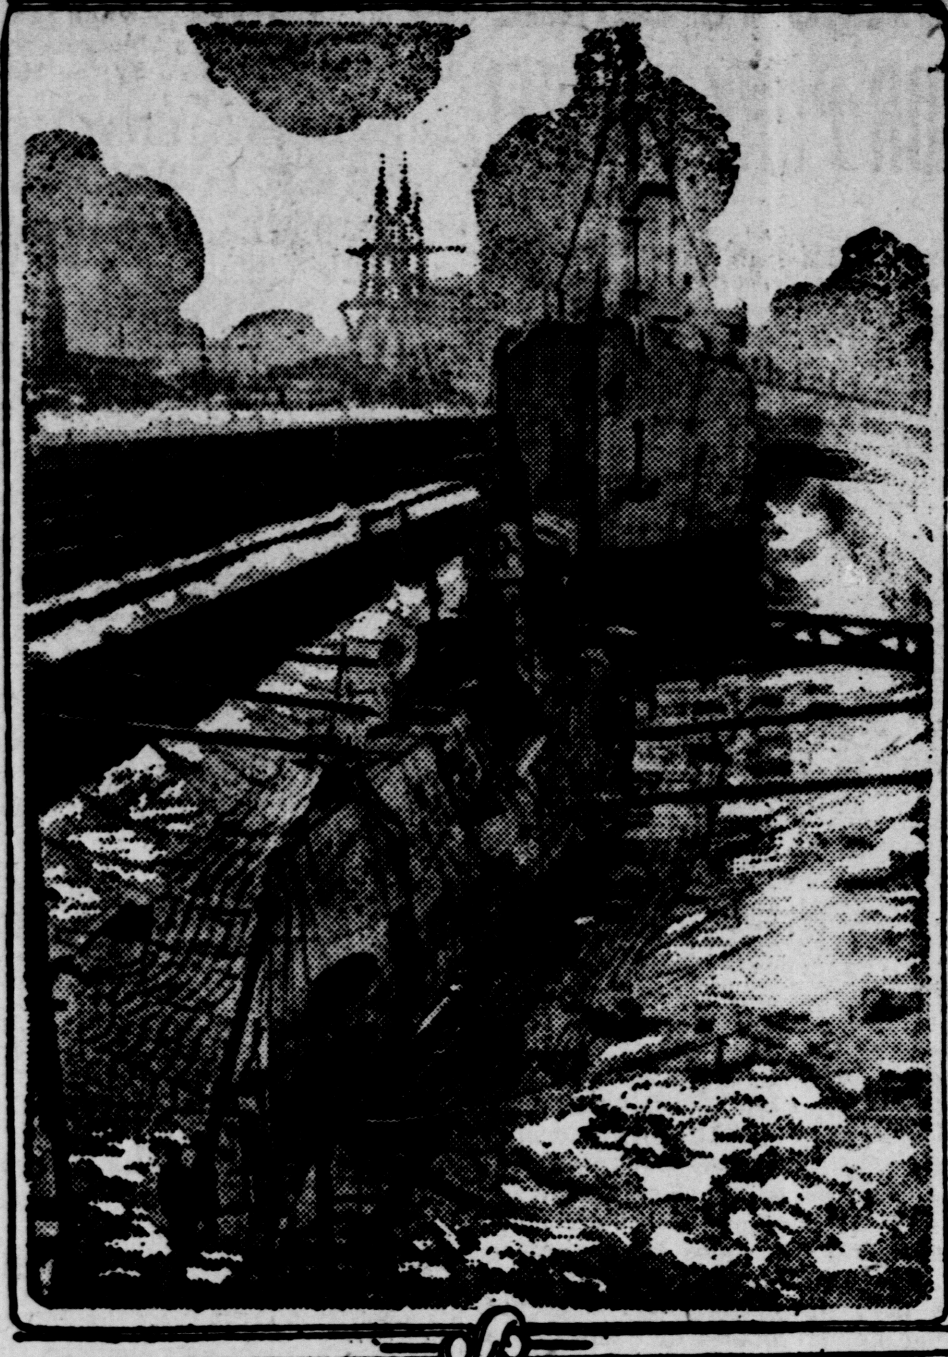

The press of the country ought to have sufficient consideration to suspend the discussion now going on concerning the return to America of the boys who died overseas. The surviving relatives of our fallen dead deserve at least that much consideration. The New York Times comments on the fact that the relatives of the dead are taking no part in the discussion. This is but natural. No one who has a loved one resting beneath the poppies has the heart to debate a question of such a character. Some of the articles concerning this matter have been more cruel in their stupid carelessness than was the first death message itself. Some of the writers go so far as to set forth in ghastly detail the condition of the dead and almost photograph their remains in order to create sentiment against removal. No crueller wrong was ever done a bereaved people.

Shortly after the signing of the armistice the next of kin of every deceased soldier was asked by the war department what her wishes were concerning the final disposition of the dead. Those cards are now on file in Washington. They constitute the final word of the soldiers' surviving relatives. Those relatives have nothing else to say.

The Shawnee News makes the assertion that people have died during the present epidemic of Influenza in Pott County because the impassable roads prevented physicians reaching their patients. Such a thing might not have been possible a few years back when physicians traveled on ponies that could negotiate any mud hole. But physicians now ride in automobiles and automobiles cannot get along some of our Oklahoma roads. Thus the road question in Oklahoma in a way becomes a matter of life and death.

Can you beat it? Bailey of Texas comes out of that political retirement to which William R. Hearst did so much to send him and joins in the unrelenting war Hearst is waging on the national administration. Can you beat it?

"MAN OVERBOARD" ON SUBMARINE IN DOCK IS SAVED BY LIFE NET

Submarine R-13 in drydock at Boston with life net spread underneath. The "Savannah" is in the background.

When the U. S. submarine R-13 and the mother ship "Savannah" were placed in drydock at Boston recently the ships were covered with ice. To minimize the danger to the crew of the sub while at work on her a life net similar to that used in circuses was stretched under the submersible. A slip on the tiny deck or sloping sides meant only a "high dive" into the net. A three inch gun was mounted on the sub. The "Savannah" is receiving a complete set of modern equipment.

Garry Cravath

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Clifford Garry Cactus Cravath faces about the toughest job in the big leagues this year. All Garry must do is to make a regular ball club out of the remnants left on President Baker's payroll. There is only one consolation Cravath can keep in mind to cheer him up. That is that nobody expects much from the Phils until Baker loosens up his purse and uses some common sense in running his club; so no one will be inclined to say much against Cravath if he fails to lead the team out of the bull-rushes. Philly fans are urging Garry to remain in his old position in right field, despite the fact that he has a manager's cares to shoulder about. Benchings himself will detract from what fighting spirit the team and weaken the outfield considerably.

Cravath has been in baseball a long time. He was born in San Diego, March 23, 1882, and hooked up with the club in that city in 1902. The next year he got a chance to show his worth with Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast League, and proceeded to wreck various coast parks with terrific drives, which finally were heard in far off Boston. The Red Sox bought him outright in 1908. That club sold him to the White Sox when he failed to continue his fence-busting. The Sox traded him to Washington and the Nats sent him to Minneapolis, where he played in 1909-10-11, getting back his batting eye. He hit over .300 two of the three seasons. In 1911 the Phils bought him outright for $2,500—a good deal for the Phils as he became one of their biggest stars his first season up. He hit .284 in 1912 and climbed to .341 the next year. He hit around slumped to .232. In all the campaign every year until 1918, when he pained he played through the season missing but one or two games a year. Last year he hit above .300. When Coombs failed to make a pennant winner out of the empty uniforms and broken bats Baker handed him Jack resigned. It is suspected Baker requested the move, figuring that signing a new manager would be cheaper than buying a ball club and that the change might revive the fans' interest for a while. Cravath was selected for Coombs' job and Baker announced "Cravath will be my manager from now on." How far the "now on" will extend remains to be seen. Fandom is backing Garry though, and if the fence buster can't mold the team into some kind of shape it will be because of lack of co-operation from Baker.

INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Many taxpayers last year realized large profits from the sale of property, real and personal, all of which must be accounted for in the return of income. Profit from such transactions is taxable income of the year in which realized, though it may have actually accrued in other years. If, however, any part of the profit accrued prior to March 1, 1913, when the first income-tax law went into effect, it is not taxable.

In such cases the fair market value of the property of March 1, 1913, is deducted from the selling price to determine the amount of profit. For example, real estate bought in 1910 for $10,000 develops rapidly in value; so that on March 1, 1913, it was worth $15,000 and similar pieces sold for that price. In 1919 it was sold for $17,500. The profit is $2,500, but as on March 1, 1913, its fair market value was $15,000, only the difference between that amount and the amount for which it was sold, or $2,500, is taxable income.

Deductions Allowed
In the purchase and sale of real estate, brokers' fees, commissions, lawyers' fees, stamp taxes, recording fees, etc., are considered part of the cost and may be deducted from the selling price in ascertaining profit. The rule is the same where personal property is bought and sold at a profit.

If, in order to sell for a higher price, the property is bettered or improved, as by the erection of a building, the expense of such improvement may be added to the cost and deducted by the owner in determining the amount of his profit. The above items, if deducted from gross income when the expenditure was made cannot later be considered in arriving at the profit, or in other words, can not be included as a business expense and also as a part of the cost of property.

Selling Price
The selling price of property includes promissory note, securities, or anything accepted as cash, and the profit must be included as income when received. Installment sales involving a relatively small initial payment and deferred payments are governed by special Treasury regulations. The profit upon an installment sale is apportioned to each installment and is only reported for taxation as collected. Except where these special regulations for installment sales apply, notes, mortgages, and other deferred payments must be considered as if the entire price was paid in cash. In case any notes should be worthless, or a deferred payment can not be collected, when due, the taxpayer, after exhausting every reasonable means for collection, may charge the amount off as a bad debt in a subsequent year. The sale of the property is regarded as a closed transaction and the collection of the notes as a new item.

The return must show the kind of property on which the profit was realized, the name and address of the purchaser or broker, the sale price, date acquired, cost or market value as of March 1, 1913, if acquired prior thereto, cost of subsequent improvements, if any, and depreciation subsequently sustained.

No Speculative Profits
In the case of property acquired prior to March 1, 1913, the return must show how the fair value of that date is determined. In the case of real estate, machinery, merchandise, or other property which does not have a public market price, any relevant evidence may be considered, such as the opinion of experts, prices asked or offered for similar property at that time, and other facts. The value as of that date should not include any prospective or speculative profits, but should represent the price at which the property could have been sold under conditions then existing.

In determining the profit on the sale of property the amount of depreciation as well as the actual cost of such property must be considered. For example, an owner sells in 1919 for $16,000 a building which in 1915 cost him $12,000.

Figuring 3 per cent annually as the proper allowance for depreciation, the total allowance is $1,440, which amount must be included in his profit on the transaction. Because the depreciation represents a loss in prior years it may not be deducted in ascertaining the profits realized in the taxable year.

Still Selling Electric Washing Machines

One lady to whom we sold an Electric Washing Machine said "I should have bought this machine six months ago as I have lost more than enough clothes to pay for the machine during the time."

You will only have to ask those who are using the machines that are sold by us to convince yourself of the economy in their use. It does not take any more current to operate one of our machines than it does for an ordinary Electric Lamp running for the same length of time.

The factory has advanced their price $15.00 per machine on the cylinder type machines but we will continue to sell ours at the same price until they are all gone.

The Lions Club of Ada met at the Harris Hotel at 11.30 today for lunch and their regular bi-monthly business meeting. The Lions were well fed as usual and then repaired to the parlor for the business meeting.

The regular routine was taken up, after which the program committee announced a paper on the question of the managerial form of government by M. F. Manville, form-president of the club. The paper was somewhat in the form of a burlesque and was heartily enjoyed by all present. The paper in toto will be found in another part of this issue. It was brought to the attention of the club that a movement was on foot among the educational leaders of the city to consolidate the lyceum efforts of the High School and the Normal for the coming season and the club gave the movement its unanimous endorsement and expressed its willingness by resolution to do all in its power to foster the enterprise.

The program was expedited according to the wishes of the president expressed at the time of his instruction into the chair several weeks ago, and the entire proceedings were full of pep from the start. Several new applications for membership were favorably reported by the membership committee, and unless protest is filed by some member they will automatically become members of the club within twenty-four hours.

SUFFRAGE BILL IS INTRODUCED

ONLY THIS AND APPROPRIATION MEASURES AND SWORN TESTIMONY AS TO OFFICIALS ADMITTED

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 24.—The state capitol today was crowded with women who gathered from throughout the state waiting for action on the joint resolution for ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment introduced in the house yesterday by representative Bert C. Hodges of Okmulgee county who introduced in the house the bill for woman suffrage for Oklahoma, passed by the sixth regular session of the general assembly.

Consideration only of the federal suffrage amendment resolution and appropriation for deficiencies and expenses of the session in addition to hearing sworn charges in connection with possible investigation of executive departments is the program outlined yesterday for the house by a democratic caucus.

The caucus, according to members who attended, adjourned without setting an hour for meeting again. Only specific charges supported by sworn statements will get a hearing if any investigations are made into the conduct of executive departments during the present session, the democratic caucus decided upon.

Adjournment not later than Saturday was favored by a majority of members of both houses yesterday and a concurrent resolution calling for adjournment at that time will be introduced in the house by Paul Nesbitt of McAlester, according to plans of the joint committee on legislation.

In the senate the only action taken yesterday was the introduction of two appropriation bills, one for $195,400 for deficiencies and another for $15,000 for expenses of the session.

Each body adjourned in less than an hour after the afternoon session met at 2:30 o'clock.

Able Argument Against the Idea Of City Manager

(The following address was delivered at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Lion's Club of Ada, held today, against the idea of the managerial form of government for the city of Ada, by M. F. Manville, prominent citizen and former president of the club)

The proof of the pudding is in the eating of the same and not in chewing the strings of the bag wherein the said pudding was cooked. The data from which my deductions were obtained is a publication put out by the City Managers Association, and organization in New York City. I consider the deductions I have made natural and customary in our political life.

Candor and fair dealing which the ethics of Lionism require, compel me to say that I give this as the opinion of one opposed to the Managerial idea.

The fact that this pamphlet comes from New York City is enough to put one on notice. How far is this office from Wall Street, that famous den of iniquity? I can not say. The booklet states that it is a part of the Fifth Year Book. Who is paying for this and the four which have preceded it? Somebody is, and that person is expecting something in return. People do not give away something for nothing. When you hear of people giving up good money for the benefit of somebody else, look out.

There are in this booklet reports from 85 towns in 26 states which have tried out the managerial idea. Let me call your attention to the significant fact that the sum of the two digits in 85 is 13 and that 26 is twice thirteen and is the skiddoo number. Any reasonable man knows that these thirteens are portentous.

It is significant also that New York City, whence this publication comes, the home of this association, is not given among the 85 towns who have city managers. Evidently they prefer Tammany Hall. Neither is Chicago, which prefers Mayor Thompson's rule. It does not look good to Philadelphia, the City of Brotherly Love, nor St. Louis nor San Francisco. Even Oklahoma City has achieved its thirty five gaily caparisoned mounted police without the services of a city manager. The largest city given is Grand Rapids, Mich., with 150,000 population and with a declining scale it reaches Largo, Florida, with 500. One half of these towns have less than 10,000.

Having given these preliminaries let us consider what a city government is for as evidenced by the achievement of these 85 conceited prodigies who turn from the principles adopted and practiced by our fathers and sail the uncharted sea of a managerial form. The commission form with its non-partisan idea is bad enough, and must have sprung from a mind unbalanced by belonging to a minority party that saw no hope in the future, and sought office via the citizen's ticket or the non-partisan route. The non-partisan idea is contrary to the Bible, as is this manager business, both of which seek "to muzzle the ox that treads out the corn."

What can be the reward of party fealty if the plums are to go to any but the faithful who have borne the heat and burden of the day? Where would these United States be, if we had followed that idea? Who are to spurn the examples of Jackson, Calhoun, Mark Hanna, Frank Hitchcock, Gore and Williams. Such luminaries as these have watched over our destiny and today the United States is the greatest nation in the world (pause here for applause) Wise counsel says "Let well enough alone."

Gentlemen, and fellow Lions, we must look the facts in the face. We all belong to some party and we are for that party. Our governmental system is built to conform to that idea. Party success is founded on party labor and party labor is, and must be paid for, with political jobs. If you want to overthrow the republic, abandon partisan politics; if you want to heave Ada into the South Canadian and let the slimy sands suck her into oblivion, then establish this non-partisan monstrosity, the city manager system. The day you seat a city manager, that day you declare to the world that Ada is a political derelict, that most pitiable object in the world; worse even than a man without a country.

Now let us get down to cases, as the lawyers say. What great reforms and benefits do these people boast? What great things might we expect at the hands of the city manager? The following are not the emanations of a jaundiced mind, I do not look with distorted vision, I merely give you what they themselves say. One says, "We have installed municipal bath houses." They fail to state what night is bath night; and what is the penalty for failure to report to the city manager for ablutions. Gentlemen, in these days when personal liberty has become a byword and pantry closet and cellar may be invaded with impunity, it makes the heart sick to see still further inroads on our personal rights. Can you not see in the not too distant future some fireside where a weeping wife, bowed with grief, her children clinging to her skirts crying, "Oh Mother, where is father tonight?" only to learn that he has been torn from the bosom of his family and ruthlessly hurled by a brutal city manager into the municipal vat?

Another boasts a reduced tax rate, another saved and another a cash balance in the Bank. Heavens, what next? My friends what is a government for, pray tell? Past and present both speak the answer—a government is to spend money. It is not a savings bank any more than it is a bath house, or a nursery. The more you spend the greater the government. Good government costs good money and lots of it. The more you spend the greater the government for example, look at the dear old U. S. A. ! ! (more and continued applause) Do you want men to raise up a generation of tight wads? Finances are a simple matter. The banker may tell you different but that is only to cloud the issue so that he can charge you a higher rate of interest or draw the mortgage tighter. Finance is easy. The more taxes you collect the more money you have to spend. If you do not get to spend it is because you did not vote right, which is your fault and not that of the partisan system. Get in the band wagon.

Some cities have established hospitals. They do not say anything about undertakers but that is probably understood, and comes under the head of protective improvements for next year. Some have employed city nurses and have even established dairy stations for baby milk. I suppose the city nurse is to hold the manager's hand when he is not employed in looking after somebody's personal bath habits or looking up some property that has escaped taxation. As to the supplying of babies with milk, the said city manager is selected, I presume, with reference to his experience and skill in fixing the baby's bottle and performing those other necessary and intimate duties in connection with an infant.

One newly elected manager drafted and passed two ordinances, one to prevent the posting of political advertisements on trees and poles. This certainly is in strict violation of the liberties granted under the constitution. How else could the voters of Ada know what office W. M. Franklin was seeking? The other ordinances required the dairies whitewashed and the cows scrubbed. I have heard of whitewashing an administration when it is over, but this is certainly a plea of guilty before the offence to begin with a coat of white wash. What perils would certainly attach if a citizen moved from one town to another? In one town his cow was scrubbed and in another he himself the victim. When he saw the city manager coming up the street with the Gold Dust Twins he wouldn't know whether it was he or the cow that was going to get it.

Now who advocates this new system? Is it the weary and toil worn wage worker plodding home after five hours of toil bent under the load of his days wages? Does he turn in at the city hall, asking to have his toe nails manicured and his cow white washed? No. It is the white collared crowd who hob-nob in the Harris Hotel, leaving their wives at home unprotected and unfed who seek to wish off on the unsuspecting public the city manager. And, gentlemen, one city of over 50,000 held public dances on the smooth pavement and their own statement says "there were 5,000 present and everybody danced". Comment on this feature alone would prolong this meeting past the supper hour. Even the selling of necessities during the war time when prices were prohibitive; potatoes at 50 cents per bushel under the market; and fish daily imported and sold at 10 cents per pound under the market and the developing of nearby coal fields during the fuel famine to save the people from starving and freezing is no virtue if they danced themselves warm.

Such gentlemen, are the arguments against the managerial system. Were I an orator with the gifts of some of our officials I might paint the scenes plainer but they would be no different, and what I have said here in a crude way is what you will meet when you advocate this new system. I have not and could not anticipate all the arguments against this thing, but I venture to say that any others will merely differ in detail and not in substance.

Let the slogan of Ada be, "that of that great political party, "We never forget anything and we never learn anything."

We will pay the highest price for second-hand furniture and stoves. Phone 53.—Conley & Son. 1-15-17

JOHNNY FLOWERS, Manager

Flowers Bros. Shoe Shop
217 West Main St.

To the Public:

I am acquainted with a great portion of the people in and around Ada, since I have been here practically my entire life, but on account of it being impossible to see each one of you personally I take this means to make a few statements.

For several years I served in the capacity of a school teacher in this and adjoining counties, but for the past several months my efforts have been in the shoe repairing business. Last fall I purchased the Electric Shoe Shop on North Broadway, and operated it successfully at that place until last week when I moved to my present stand. A good business was established and I feel that my efforts were entirely rewarded.

Everybody has work to do in my line and I ask that I be given a share of your patronage. You will find here an atmosphere of courtesy which will prevail at all times and also our work is of the best quality—our guarantee stands behind every job turned out.

I trust that in the future I can count you as one of my customers, and with positive assurance that every job, no matter how small, will be appreciated. I am

Yours very truly,

Why Druggists Recommend Swamp-Root

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Ada News.

A Correction

In the advertisement Monday of the American Bakery, the price of a loaf of bread was erroneously given as 15 cents. The price should have been 10 cents a loaf or 3 for 25 cents. The advertiser is anxious that this correction be made as he insists he is selling bread unusually cheap, quality and service considered.

Hard-working men and women who are plagued with a torpid liver, feel tired, listless and discouraged. They know they are lazy and they are ashamed yet it is nothing to be ashamed of. The thing to do is to get the liver started again and to purify the stomach and bowels. There is no better remedy for this purpose than Prickly Ash Bitters. A few doses corrects the trouble and makes work a pleasure. Price $1.25 per bottle. Gwin-Mays Drug Co., Special Agents. adv.

The Women of Today

Japanese women who want the vote are not going to give their opponents the opportunity of accusing them of neglecting their duties as mothers and leaving their babies to the care of hired nurses. No, indeed. Instead they are going to take their babies with them onto the lecture platform and into the public forums, at least all indications point that way.

The accompanying photograph shows Mrs. Kikuchi, a factory worker of the Tokyo Muslin Company, addressing a public meeting with her little baby fastened to her back. She is speaking at a large mass meeting of workers of Kwansai at Osaka, Japan. The meeting was a part of the campaign for suffrage being waged by the new woman movement in Japan. While the American woman's fight is regarded as finished that of the Japanese woman is just about begun.

Favors Woman President
Launching of a movement for a political party to put the United States under a "matriarchal" form of government with a woman for president and women at the head of all important departments has been announced by Mrs. Nellie B. Van Slingerland, president of the Daughters of Michigan.

Mrs. Van Slingerland asserted that a matriarchy existed among primitive peoples before the patriarchal form, and declared that the feminine cycle was again approaching. Opposition to war and the establishing of an international court were stated to be the principal planks in the platform of the proposed matriarchal party.

Other planks are mothers' pensions, child protection, prison reform and segregation of defectives, health certificates for those contemplating marriage, women judges for children's courts, universal divorce laws and a single standard of morals.

"The present cycle must install a matriarchy," said Mrs. Van Slingerland, "to exercise a protectorate over the male population, which seems to have lost all sense of civilization and to have reverted many degrees below the savage."

Democrats Name Women
Appointment of eleven women as members of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee has been made by Chairman Homer S. Cummings.

Six additional women members

COUGHED SO HARD HE WAS READY TO DIE

But he recovered quickly and gained 9 pounds in 5 weeks.

"Last December I caught a heavy cold, which left me with a deep-seated cough. I coughed so hard it would start the blood. I thought I was a goner, until I tried Milks Emulsion. I used 3 bottles altogether. My cough is gone, and I have gained nine pounds in five weeks. If anyone doubts it, let them write me."—Chas. L. Walters, 147 So. 18th St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

People tell you of just such recovery, just such gains in weight, it must be worth your trying, at least. A trial costs nothing. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Opening Announcement

I have returned to Ada and have opened an up-to-date Shoe Shop at 121 East Main, in the building next to the American Theatre. The machinery is the most modern I could secure and is largely new—just from the factory.

You will remember me as formerly being the proprietor of the Broadway Shoe Shop, now conducted by W. J. Hughes. At this place I served you successfully for many years. In my new location I invite your patronage. Years of experience together with modern equipment insures you of utmost satisfaction.

TRIBUTE TO BOYS OF AMERICAN LEGION

(The following address, prepared by the national headquarters to be read in connection with the presentation of French Memorial Certificates, was read at the service last Sunday morning by Rev. C. C. Morris.)

Fellow Citizens: It is an exceptional honor to be privileged to address you upon this occasion which calls to the mind of each living man and woman—yes, and child too—the valiant deeds that were performed by America's illustrious sons in the cause of Liberty and Justice. This day it is fitting that while commemorating the birth of our first president, we also review afresh those heroes who, in the line of duty, gave the world at large their own lives in order that others might live.

While expressing their appreciation to the living, the French High Commission, at the direction of the French government, desires our government to extend to the nearest relative, through the American Legion in co-operation with the war and navy departments, assurance of their unfailing memory of the fallen in token of which, the French government presents to you the Certificates of Honor.

This day, the peoples of two republics mourn with you and turning to you in reverence and admiration, offer to you what measure of consolation is theirs to give. I am reminded of that day in June, 1917, when the first contingent of the American Forces arrived in France, and the first cheers that arose like a cry of relief from the men, women and children of that great republic—of how, on his arrival in Paris our esteemed Commander-in-Chief, General Pershing, visited the grave of the French General of 1776, and, echoing the lasting gratitude of the American people, as a pledge for the future, said "Lafayette, we are here." So today, in voicing to you the sympathy and condolence of every member of the American Legion, this organization whose greatness of purpose is as truly great as its membership, I would say to you "Fathers, Mothers, we are here." We are here united in purpose, not only to preserve on such an occasion as this, as well as for all time, the memories and incidents of our association in the great war. We are here to commemorate, forever, the deeds of the dead as well as the living and most of all to see to it that what your dead ones fought and died for, whose sacrifices procured the victory, shall always be preserved, protected and cherished.

EMBROIDERED NET AND FILET MAKE YOUTHFUL FROCKS

By ELOISE.

Although it is customary at this time of year to predict a "white summer" and prophecy that white is to be the favored fabric for the warm months because it is popular now in the south, it really seems too early to make such a statement. White is always popular in the warm months because of its perfect laundering qualities and it is always popular with young people, for it is very youthful and fresh looking. Hence whether it is to be a "white summer" or not it will be a good idea to know just what is being shown now in the line of white frocks.

Here is one of the prettiest frocks which was shown in the displays of frocks for southern wear. It is fashioned of the finest of embroidered net trimmed with exquisite filet lace. The tunic has the pouches at the hips and tucks at the edge. The short sleeves and short skirt show the Paris influence. A girlish and long streamers of narrow soft gros gros grain ribbon is the finishing touch.

If one does not like to wear an all white costume there are adorable little hats like this one pictured developed in any and every shade imaginable, delicate and brilliant ones alike. This is made of straw fabric of a rich flame color with a wreath of wheat for trimming.

SUPT. A. FLOYD ADDRESS TEACHERS MEETING

full sympathy with our Normals, and our noble teachers that come from them. But are we getting them in our rural schools? Are they adequately prepared for the rural school work, or are our Normals catering wholly to the prepared teachers for city schools? However, I'll give notice to this part later.

The salary and prepared teachers cannot be separated any more than you can separate attention and interest. If you hold the attention of individuals you must keep up the interest and to keep the interest you must have the attention. So it is with a permanent, substantial raise in salary. If the salary be substantially raised it will demand adequately prepared teachers, or on the other hand, if we have adequately prepared teachers the raise will be substantial and permanent.

The shortage of teachers has raised and will still further raise the scale of salaries just as it has in other lines of work though not as apparent probably in the teachers case as in other lines. In fact we know that it has not been raised in proportion to others. But I feel that such raises in the teachers salaries are much more likely to be permanent than in the case of some other workers. The present inflation of prices in my judgment, will not persist in when industrial conditions become normal at home and abroad, but what teachers gain, they will keep, for there is a general disposition among all people to admit that teachers ought to be worth more than they get.

No substantial rise in salary can be maintained or will be maintained except by a correspondingly rise in the standards of service. Prices are the product of the law of supply and demand in this country and has always been so. So if the standards of teachers are so low that practically any one can meet them, there is no justice in paying them any more than in any other line of work. Paying poor teachers a good salary does not automatically make her a good teacher or even a better teacher. But, indeed it does have a great tendency to even discourage more capable rivals who have nothing extra to show for superior merit. It appears to me our system in such that if you pay the poor teachers all they are worth, they would have enough to pay the good teachers all they could reasonably ask.

Then advance in salary should imply some sort of competition or merit system. A thing much lacked in our school system—the man, who can grow a better calf, who can make a better wagon, who can write a better book, who can preach a better sermon than his neighbor will find a glad welcome and an appreciative public, but for the superior teacher finds that the world knows and cares very little about what she is really doing and to avoid the trouble of coming to see her and investigate her work, rate her and pay her by some such irrelevant standard, as so many years in Normal, so many years of experience, or so much ability to put answers on paper to so many questions.

If the present shortage makes communities more alert to get better teachers and willing to pay more money for what they are worth it only remains with us as county superintendents and boards to put the humblest cross road teacher in touch with those opportunities and to make everybody appreciate that merit wins, that good works count, and that laziness and indifference get what they deserve.

Now, in conclusion I wish to emphasize, that the supply of adequate school does not meet the demand; schools does not meet the demand; and that the salary for the prepared rural is too low. To improve these conditions, I wish to offer these suggestions: First, That we must have some legislation on a system of employment of teachers that will be unifying and based upon merit and efficiency. Second,

WOMEN NEED NOT STAND IT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Surely Removes Suffering and Pain. Here is Proof.

St. Paul, Neb.—"I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. WILL THOMAS, St. Paul, Neb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who now are free from suffering by its use.

That a department be added to our State Normals for the training of our strictly rural teachers. In my judgment we will never have the truly trained and qualified rural teachers until this is done.

THE INJUNCTION SIGNED AGAINST SHIPPING BOARD

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON Feb. 24.—Associate Justice Bailey of the district supreme court today signed the formal order of injunction against the shipping board to prevent the sale of twenty-nine former German liners. The court consented to the request of the shipping board that the vessel Suwanee, which has been sold for $2,000,000, be excluded from the order of injunction.

No notification of appeal was given by counsel for the shipping board, but it was said that a special appeal may be taken later.

Postoffice Improvements

Postmaster J. M. Westbrook has just installed 120 new combination lock boxes at the postoffice and has rearranged the fixtures to give more room to the working force inside. The business of the local office is growing rapidly and Mr. Westbrook found the installation of the new equipment necessary in order to care for the business.

Episcopal Church Notice

On account of my being out of town there will be no services in the St. Luke's Church Wednesday evening as announced. Note also that arrangements have been made whereby services can be had in this church next Sunday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. Please bear both of these changes in mind. The Litany service on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock may be expected as announced.

Franklin Davis, Rector.

A Correction.

In giving the list of near kin to whom were awarded French Memorial Certificates by the American Legion at the services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning, in yesterday's News, the name of Mrs. Harvey Gatlin was unintentionally omitted.

CLOTHES

In making the price $50 we owe these coats an apology

How would you like to be making $5,000 a year and have the Joneses next door think you were only getting $3,500.

That's how these coats feel at $50. They are worth more and what's more they are bringing more in 99 out of every 10 clothing stores in Oklahoma.

And if the coats could talk we'd get a severe reprimand for holding their social position down to such commonplace figures.

At 50 they are worth 60; at 60—they would be as handsome as anything at 75.

The lot comprises aristocratic Ulsters, Blue Blood Chesterfields and Thoroughbred Belters and every coat has the ear marks of a one hundred dollar bill in everything else than the price mark.

If you'll come in and try one on—you won't go away mad.
